

Terry G. Kilgore, Virginia House of Delegates

Terry Gene Kilgore and his wife, Debbie, reside in the Manville community outside of Gate City in Scott County. Terry and Debbie have two children, Kayla and Kyle.

Delegate Kilgore graduated from Gate City High School (1979) then continued his education at The University of Virginia's College at Wise. He also furthered his education by graduating from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William and Mary in 1986. Terry practices law in Gate City, VA and is also the Dean of Institutional Advancement at the new Appalachian School of Pharmacy in Grundy, Va.

Having been elected in 1993, Terry currently serves Virginia's First Legislative House District which includes Scott, Lee, and most of Wise of County and the city of Norton.

Other Board Appointments:

Appalachian Region Interstate Compact Commission

Coal and Energy Commission, Chair
Uranium Mining Subcommittee

Southwest Virginia Cultural Heritage Foundation

Southwest Virginia Health Authority, Chair

Southwest Virginia Higher Education Center Board of Trustees

Southwest Virginia Public Education Consortium Board of Directors

Tobacco Indemnification and Community Revitalization Commission, Chair